

Women Who Count 2020 Virtual Conference

Accounting and Financial Women's Alliance

Speaker Highlight

Leading From a Distance

Anna Raney

Polston Tax Resolution & Accounting
Director of Leadership & Culture Development

Leading From a Distance: This presentation will discuss communication and leadership, the trends that are happening right now with many people in a different location than the people they are leading. Communication with different personality types and different generations as well as the impact being a good leader can have on your culture and team productivity.

Title: Leading From a Distance

Field of Study: Communications and Marketing

Program Level: Basic

1 CPE credit

Wednesday, October 28, 1:30 PM EST during the Women Who Count Virtual Conference!

Learning Objectives: Educate and inspire professionals to have effective communication and have tools on improving leadership.

Speaker Bio: Anna Raney is originally from Cincinnati, Ohio. She has lived in Oklahoma for about 9 years. Always active, Anna became a collegiate athlete and rose to leadership on every team she on which she played. Now, Anna continues that leadership at Polston Tax where she leads a team of business development professionals across the U.S. . Her team is responsible for generating revenue for the firm and building relationships within the community. She is incredibly passionate about what she does and believes this role was made for her. Anyone who knows Anna knows she genuinely loves coming to work every single day. Anna is particularly passionate about helping small businesses and women succeed. She is a graduate of the SALLT and Light Leadership Program Class 12, an award recipient of the NextGen 30 Under 30 Award, The Cottings Award for Character, and The Rising Star Award. Anna's diverse background and professional career enables her to speak with many different groups about a variety of topics and to participate in leadership capacities in a variety of organizations.

As a dedicated part of her community, Anna also serves on the board of a non-profit that help business owners get established and grow. She is in the process of developing a state-wide mentoring program to help bridge the generational gap in the professional world to ensure that every woman is not only mentored but can also mentor the next generation. Apart from this, Anna leads a small group of young women through her church, acting President of a Young Professionals Networking Group for Women, or spending time with her husband, family and friends. She loves traveling and anything active in the great outdoors!

Register Now!

Register today for Women Who Count 2020! Select full conference registration or a day pass registration. Single session tickets are also available for $50 per session.

*Notification of cancellation must be submitted in writing to afwa@afwa.org. Cancellations submitted by September 15 will be subject to a $100 cancellation fee. No refunds will be given for canceled registrations after September 15. Substitutions are allowed at any time but must be submitted to AFWA Headquarters via email (afwa@afwa.org). Registrants who fail to attend the National Conference are responsible for full payment.

*AFWA is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors. State boards of accountancy have final authority on the acceptance of individual courses for CPE credit. Complaints regarding registered sponsors may be submitted to the National Registry of CPE Sponsors through its website: www.NASBARegistry.org.

A blue banner with a green and white logo on the left. The logo features a white 'W' with a green line graph above it. To the right of the logo, the text '#WomenWhoCount' is written in white. Below this, there are icons for Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, and Instagram, followed by the text '@afwanational'. The right side of the banner has a green and white chevron pattern.

 #WomenWhoCount
    @afwanational

Accounting and Financial Women's Alliance

