

For Immediate Release: 10/30/2023

Accounting & Financial Women's Alliance

Contact: Your Name

Your Phone Number

www.afwa.org

The 2023 Women Who Count Conference

LEXINGTON, KY. (October 27, 2023): Your Name, Chapter recently attended the 2023 Women Who Count Conference, hosted by the Accounting & Financial Women's Alliance (AFWA). The Women Who Count Conference is a nationally ranked conference for professionals in the accounting and finance field, which took place on October 25-27 in Reno NV. This event allowed all participants to share ideas, gain insight, connect with others, and make lifelong friends.

“The Women Who Count Conference is such an amazing, moving experience serving women both professionally and personally in the accounting and finance fields.” says Your Last Name, chapter.

The conference included three days of interactive learning sessions covering diverse topics such as leadership skill development, a phenomenal DEI Panel, an economic update, tax issues and IRS information, digital asset taxation and auditing. Attendees were able to earn up to 21 CPE credits while attending 33 educational sessions. There were many exciting CPE sessions and events, including The Annual Women Who Count Signature Awards Event.

AFWA also released their annual MOVE Project, which is a research report that includes lists of the 2023 Best Firms for Women and the 2023 Best Firms for Equity Leadership. The full report can be viewed at www.afwa.org/news-updates-press-releases/.

The Women Who Count National Conference continues to provide attendees with a wealth of information, educational opportunities, career advancement, and professional development. Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion is at the forefront of the conference and attendees use these skills to further advance the mission of AFWA.

###